Nicosia

Nicosia, 2 February 2017

PRESS RELEASE

The Embassy of Italy in Nicosia and five Italian Higher Education Institutions will present study opportunities in Italy at the Cyprus International Education and Career Exhibition 2017 from 17 to 19 February 2017 at the Cyprus International Fair Grounds.

Prospective students and their families are cordially invited to visit the "Study in Italy" stand where they will receive qualified information about the Italian higher education system in general and about five of the best Italian Higher Education Institutions that have come to Cyprus to present their offer: the Universities "IUAV" of Venice, "Tor Vergata" of Rome, "Carlo Bo" of Urbino; the Polytechnic of Milan and the Academy of Fine Arts "Brera" of Milan.

Not to be missed is the special live presentation by the Delegates of the above-mentioned Institutions, that will take place Saturday 18 February from 16.20 to 17.40 and will be introduced by H.E. Guido Cerboni, Ambassador of Italy in Cyprus.

Italy is the ideal choice for international students who want to experience a centuries-old academic tradition combined with advanced research facilities. From Arts and Humanities to Technical and Scientific Studies, Italian Tertiary education institutions have the full range of academic offerings. More than 300 University courses are taught in English in various faculties, including Medicine, Pharmacy, Architecture, Fashion Design and Economics. The tuition fees for EU citizens are extremely competitive, usually a fraction of those of comparable US and UK universities. Best of all, studying in Italy allows foreign students to discover a country with an extraordinary cultural and artistic heritage, offering a unique opportunity of personal enrichment.
